

AFFIDAVIT

About a week prior to my Troy Lynn Hill, GPM's (hereinafter affiant) arrest the Cosmo club was visited once again by the LAPD Vice. They had been harassing the club for almost a year. One of the officers approached the affiant and asked to see affiants identification. The affiant gave LAPD Vice affiants National ID card. LAPD Vice officer looked at the National ID Card and then asked the affiant what kind of ID it was and said that he had never seen an ID like that one before and asked if it was one of those sovereign citizen ID's. The affiant explained that it was a National ID.

The affiant also explained that affiant was a "non citizen non resident alien to the United States of America." And that the LAPD Vice officer could go check with Department of Defense if he needed more clarification. The officer replied "Their just another agency."

The affiant also explained to the LAPD Vice officer that calling the affiant a sovereign citizen could be considered a human rights violation. The affiant explained that the term "sovereign citizen" is a misnomer, that the Government is sovereign. The LAPD Vice officer then asked, "how does someone get one of these ID's, do they go online and get one?"

"Do they have to join an organization?" The affiant explained to the LAPD Vice officer that it is not an organization that it is the true Government. The LAPD Vice officer continued try leading the affiant into calling the Government an organization. The affiant then told the LAPD Vice officer that if he wanted to know more that he could visit http://www.generalpost.info and http://humanrightstribunal.international.

The affiant then asked the LAPD Vice officer if he had ever heard of The Universal Declaration of Human Rights. The officer said he did. The affiant explained to the LAPD Vice officer that he was also a Human Rights Defender and had the authority to arrest bonds. The affiant also explained that the Government of The United States of America 1781 brought to present time is a peaceful Government. That the American Nationals respect what the police do as long as it is within the law. Afterwards we stopped and talked about the sports and the recent shooting in Dallas.

As the LAPD Vice officer was leaving he asked me once again for the Human Rights Defender web address. The affiant had posted a recent document posted in "The Reign f the Heavens Society newspaper entitled "American Bar Association fully recognizes the Government of The United States of America!" That same evening almost exactly a week later on Friday July 22nd 2016 the LAPD Vice officers came back. They gave the club a ticket. Then they called the affiant out and had the affiant walk over to the car where they handcuffed the affiant. The affiant explained to the LAPD Vice officers that he is a "non citizen non-resident alien to the United States of America and that the affiant is not in their jurisdiction. At this point it was clear that the LAPD Vice officers did not know the difference between Inter-State and Intra-State Commerce.

The LAPD Vice officer that the affiant had talked to a week prior was a bit aggressive and stern with the affiant. This continued at the LAPD Hollywood station where the affiant was taken by the LAPD Vice officer from a week prior and another officer. At the LAPD Hollywood station the affiant was taken to the Sergeant on duty and asked if the affiant was aware of why the affiant was there. The affiant informed the Sergeant on duty that he was a non-citizen non-resident alien and that he was not in the jurisdiction of the LAPD. The Los Angeles Police Department is the private police force for the City of Los Angeles that operates as a private membership association and not a public municipality serving the public within its city limits.

The Sergeant on duty then replies, "Tell it to the judge." The affiant was eventually booked and finger printed and allowed to make a phone call. The affiant was then placed in a holding cell where the affiant spent the next three days. On Monday July 25th 2016 the affiant was bussed to LAX courthouse where the affiant was taken to the 7th floor to talk with the public defender Gia Bosley hereinafter public defender.

The affiant informed the public defender that the affiant already had representation. While in court the public defender asked who the affiant's representation was and the affiant replied "The Human Rights Defenders." The affiant proclaimed in court that affiant was an "American National." When they would ask the affiant any questions affiant continued proclaiming that the affiant was an American National.

The affiant was offered a chance to take a plea deal that would've released the affiant two days later. The affiant turned it down and was sentenced to 30 days in jail. The affiant was then taken to Los Angeles county jail where the affiant spent the next thirteen hours being processed. The next morning the affiant was taken to N.C.C.F. also known as Wayside and Super Max.

The affiant was chained up with inmates who were Compton gang members. They informed the affiant of what is called T.U.N.A. fight. Turn Up Non Affiliated fights where inmates in certain dorms that are not gang members are matched up and forced to fight each other, while gang members bet on the fights. If the non-affiliated choose not to fight then they are beaten by the gang members. This activity is allowed within those facilities known as Wayside and Super Max and even encouraged to manufacture longer sentences which produces more money for these private dentention centers. Rahibilitation is never mentioned within the private dentention centers.

The affiant was placed in dorm 618 for two days where the prison politics were in full effect. The dorms are separated by race, and the gang members run the jails. They are respected way more than someone who is non-affiliated.

Then the affiant was told to roll it up and sent to South which is a facility that is more like an old army barracks style location with high fences with barbed wire. This facility allowed the inmates to step outside to use the phone if the inmate wanted. While back at Wayside the affiant along with the other inmates was told to strip naked and perform humiliating acts in front of the Sheriff's.

The affiant and inmates were told to grab their testicles pull forward. Turn around and lean forward and open your butt cheeks, kneel down and cough real loud several times. Then they made the affiant and the inmates change into new boxers and blues. After that was done they had the affiant and the inmates go into a holding cell with standing room only and stay their from 9:00PM to12:00AM midnight before feeding us and sending us to our assigned dorms.

Affiant still had to deal with the race politics. Two days later the affiant was taken back to Wayside to 512 the veterans dorm where the affiant spent the rest of affiants time. At Wayside it took close to two weeks for the affiant to get a new towel, boxers, and a t-shirt.

Laundry pick-up and exchange is supposed to happen weekly. The affiant found out that the inmates washed their clothes while in the shower. So the affiant did so as well. The affiant noticed and was informed that the inmate diet was dominated with soy and sugar. Many of the inmates complained of not being able to have proper bowel movements.

Some of the inmates went several days without having a bowel movement. Inmates were forced to drink water coming out of the faucet that was also the community wash sink. The water had numerous floating particles in it. The floating particles caused the affiant and many inmates to stop drinking water and consumed the milk and orange juice that was served with the meals. Some inmates complained that the meals were so small that they always felt hungry and yet they never lost any weight in the process.

The affiant as well as some of the inmates also noticed that even though the inmates weren't consuming large amounts of liquids they were still urinating often. The affiant was informed by an older inmate who had been in and out of jail for many years that the reason that they give the inmates the bland meals was that so the inmate would spend money on the store every week. He explained that they would spend more money on their store and use a public defender rather than taking that money and hiring a real attorney.

The older inmate also pointed out that they are slowly killing the inmates because the food that they sell from the store is all high sodium and or sugar products. Los Angelas county is a partner and receives a percentage of the food sales. The older inmate asked the affiant if the affiant had noticed how often NCCF does lockdowns.

The older inmate informed the affiant that the lockdowns are not always used for the purpose that they were created. The affiant was told that the lockdown was also used during times when the facility was on a skeleton crew.

Other times lockdowns were used to show possible investors around the facility. The affiant submitted request forms on numerous occasions using the affiants PMA in order to find out the affiants pending court date. However, the Sergeant never responded to any of the forms. The affiant was taken to LAX on the 25th of August 2016 to appear in court. The affiant was taken up to the 7th floor with three other inmates.

The three other inmates were taken into the waiting area just before the bailiff takes them into court. The affiant was placed in the room where the public defender meets with the defendants before going into court. Suddenly the bailiff comes back down the hallway informing the affiant that they want to handle my case first and that he was taking the others back downstairs and they would be seen after lunch.

Eventually the public defender enters on the other side of the glass where the affiant was in the room and begins to tell the affiant what the affiants options were and what the Commissioner was offering. The Public Defender was stopped by the affiant who told her that "There were no provisions in the affiants PMA that required the affiant to use the services of a public defender." The public defender then asked if the affiant wanted to represent himself.

The affiant said yes. The public defender now noticeably irritated begins explaining the ramifications of the affiant attempting to represent himself. The affiant was then told that the affiant need to fill out, check and initial all of the boxes on the form that the bailiff would give the affiant. Then the affiant was told good luck as the public defender abruptly left the scene.

The affiant was given the form then taken back downstairs to the holding cell. The bailiff informed the affiant that he might be able to get the public defender to talk to the affiant if he wanted to change his mind.

The affiant called the affiants Governor, hereinafter John to inform him of what had just taken place. The affiant informed John that the affiant would rather try and handle this from the outside.

The affiant had heard stories years prior to claiming a Nationality of inmates getting lost in the Los Angeles county jail system. The affiant was worried that the judicial system might try to use the fact that the affiant is an American National as an excuse to make this happen for the affiant as well. The affiant also knew that there was no guarantee that the affiant would be sent back to the veteran's dorm.

The affiant was taken back to the 7th floor to meet with the public defender again. The public defender never once mentioned that she had been contacted on the affiant's behalf by the Secretary of State nor did the public defender mention that they had received the affiant's documents proving that the affiant was a non-citizen, non-resident alien to the United States of America. All evidence was hidden by all court officers acting together against the affiant.

The public defender and the commissioner chose to ignore international law and commit human rights violations. The Commissioner gave time served but she wanted the affiant to take classes and that the classes should be paid at the clerk window on the third floor within 21 days of that court date or she would place another bench warrant for the affiant. The affiant was later released in a black paper suit later that afternoon.
