2) Motion entered by agent to suspend all international travel rights for all named respondents unless accompanied by an attorney.

CAUSE: Whereas, respondents have proven to be not only ignorant of Human Rights but also contemptuous toward Human Rights. Further, The United States of America should not be liable for possible international incidents arising from any respondent's disrespect and disregard for Human Rights while traveling internationally.

MOTION IS HEREBY GRANTED, by the Human Rights Tribunal,

3) Motion entered by agent to expunge the local record against Richard Rexford Reinheimer.

CAUSE: The International Due Process standards were not met by the local authorities of which caused the Human Rights Violations against the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. Further, the local authorities are not familiar with Human Rights and therefore due process is unfamiliar to the local authorities. Further, the responsibilities and liabilities of the Human Rights Violations fall upon The United States of America and the Government thereof which is the source of authority due to the fact that the Government of The United States of America does not fall under the U.S. constitution. Therefore, to expunge the local record against Richard Rexford Reinheimer would cause an immediate release of Richard Rexford Reinheimer back to the Government of The United States of America in the nature of an International Habeas Corpus.
