Court address: 26 Academy Street Laconia, NH 03246 Phone: 603-223-0392

The Laconia District COURT and/or Courthouse and/or clerk thereof, is hereby noticed that the above case reference has undergone a change of venue due to a demand for a Public Trial. Your court has no legal ability to simulate a Public trial and operate under foreign constraints that alter, change and impair due process while simulating and operating as a Private Political unit and Religion and violate International concepts and Law of Nations.

The claimant is under a Bilateral Social Compact, with other identity proofs of Political changes and is therefore included to not be a subject to trafficking of the Person or any other monetary slaving concept or into foreign constraints of foreign Trust placed vacant of consideration and/or offshore Person moves partially disclosed under Title 31. The Claimant Person is held to include in evidence under another government:

In Trust under The United States of America and the Government of the United States of America 1781 and/or The American National Union as Amended from The Perpetual Union authored from The Articles of Association in 1774. Therefore, and while forced by Political units and Religions into other Association(s) will incur damages and other remedies, and shown herein and not limited to this specific doctrine, no trespass is accepted and is subject to remedy when moved otherwise:

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights states:

Article 10

Everyone is entitled in full equality to a fair and public hearing by an independent and impartial tribunal, in the determination of his rights and obligations and of any criminal charge against him.

The court conducting a trial on the above case reference # 18-118-AR is being held in a private court wherein the defendant wishes to receive a public trial in front of an impartial tribunal. This human right is absolute and not open to a judicial determination by any judge in the world.
